TWU Carrying Australia

JPT UPDATE
NOVEMBER 2026

TWU TAKING JPT TO THE FAIR WORK COMMISSION

We've been negotiating with JPT for a fair agreement that reflects the valuable work you do, and ensures a decent pay increase and conditions.

But JPT is refusing to bargain in good faith.

JPT REFUSING TO MEET AND RESPOND TO CLAIMS

The TWU has lodged a dispute with the FWC, alleging JPT has failed to meet its good faith obligations during negotiations. This includes through:

- Refusing to meet with the TWU to continue negotiate your agreement
- Refusing to respond to your key claims, especially local claims

GET BACK TO THE NEGOTIATING TABLE

The TWU will continue to push JPT back to the negotiating table to address workers' outstanding claims including:

- Fair wage increases to support cost of living
- Roster certainty
- Pathway to 15% superannuation
- Fairer overtime and weekend/public holiday pay
- Important local claims

WHAT'S NEXT

We'll keep members updated on the Fair Work Commission process.

Every new member makes us stronger. When we fight together, we win together.
