

DO YOU DELIVER ORDERS FOR COLES ONLINE?

Do you:

- ▶ Drive a van, car or motorcycle?
- ▶ Deliver shopping to customers of Coles Online?
- ▶ Work full time, part time or casually?

If so, you are a Delivery Driver.

Under the terms of Australian wage agreements, delivery drivers like you who deliver for Coles online should be paid the rates for a Delivery Driver and not of a retail assistant.

If you are not recognised as a Delivery Driver you are not receiving the wages, conditions and safety standards you deserve.

It's Not Fair.

If you want to know more please contact the Online Drivers Hotline on:

1300 174 781

You can also receive further information and updates online at www.twu.com.au • www.facebook.com/TWUAus • www.twitter.com/twuaustralia

DID YOU KNOW?

Online Delivery Drivers who work under the Road Transport and Distribution Award enjoy much better pay and conditions.

- ✓ For every Saturday worked they receive almost $7 more per hour than you.
- ✓ When they start work before 5.30am on a weekday they receive almost $7 more per hour than you.
- ✓ Their workplace is committed to safe, driver-appropriate conditions.
- ✓ Casual employees can choose to become permanent after 12 months.

You do the same job. You should be entitled to the same wages and conditions.

That's Fair.

For more information call the Online Drivers Hotline on:

1300 174 781

