

DELIVERY RIDERS

JOIN US!

- > Do you do food delivery work?
- > Want to know more about your rights?
- > Interested in how we can together shape future for you and your colleagues?

Then be part of our campaign launch to win rights at work for all food delivery workers.

What: Transport Workers' Union food delivery campaign launch and workshop

Date: Wednesday, 31 January 2018

Time: Riders, make sure you arrive by 10.45am at the latest for a briefing, followed by a demonstration, lunch and rider workshop (but come and stay for the whole day – from 9am to 3pm – if you can make it!)

Where: Victorian Trades Hall Council (54 Victoria St, Carlton)

Everyone doing food delivery work needs rights and protections. Whether you do work for UberEATS, Foodora, Deliveroo or any other provider, you deserve a fair deal that guarantees that you'll come home safely at the end of each day.

But it won't just happen.

We need to come together to join forces and win.

For more information email: ondemand@twu.com.au or follow us on Facebook: @on-demandworkersaustralia