For a better deal at Aerocare

Across the aviation industry, Transport Workers' Union (TWU) members are fighting to ensure a real future with decent, secure jobs for aviation workers, our families, and our communities.

That's why TWU members are fighting for better standards and conditions for workers right across the aviation industry – including at Aerocare and Virgin Australia.

Lots of workers at Virgin Australia do exactly the same jobs we do – in Pit Crew and Guest Services. Here's some of what they get, but we miss out at Aerocare:

- ✗ Permanent, full-time jobs
- ✗ Job Security with a career path
- ✗ Overtime & Penalty Rates
- ✗ Days-in-lieu
- ✗ No split shifts
- ✗ 4-hour minimum shifts
- ✗ Staff Travel (incl. $1000 credit for you and your family)
- ✗ Overtime and penalty rates for Part-timers

The TWU is the union for aviation workers. TWU members have the strength and support that comes with representing tens of thousands of aviation workers right around Australia.

That's why thousands of ramp, baggage, guest services, and catering workers, pilots, and flight attendants are proud to be TWU members and part of a better future for our aviation industry.
