

3 REASONS TO VOTE NO

1 JOB SECURITY

Under Jetstar's shoddy deal you would have no protections against the company giving more work to exploited, untrained labour hire. The only way to give Jetstar workers job security is to fight for the claim we've already put forward to Jetstar: that all Jetstar work is offered to Jetstar employees before being outsourced.

2 UNDEREMPLOYMENT

Jetstar is still refusing to guarantee more than 20 hours to many workers. TWU's survey of Jetstar workers revealed 90% want more hours.

The hours are available, we need to move them into the guaranteed column of our EA.

3 CUTTING CONDITIONS

Jetstar's proposed agreement cuts many of your hard-won conditions making it more difficult to take personal, sick and annual leave, capping redundancy and leaving you at risk of demotion without consultation.

Jetstar workers have bravely stood up against bullying and intimidation by Jetstar, compelling the company to negotiate. Now Jetstar are forcing workers to vote on a shoddy deal. They are using backpay as a way to try and lock workers into years of lack of hours and bad conditions. Jetstar should pay workers this rate increase from last year instead of using it as ransom for the vote. By voting NO we will stand up to the company and bring them back to the table to negotiate properly. We've done it before, we can do it again.
