

RAMPING UP THE FIGHT FOR DNATA WORKERS

Congratulations to the thousands of Dnata workers who have been making calls to the Treasurer Josh Frydenberg's office over the last 48 hours. Coupled with the media achieved, this has been crucial to getting the Treasurer's attention, whilst Dnata management and the TWU have been demanding he extend JobKeeper. Now we ramp up our fight to ensure the Federal Government hears our call.

STEP 1: SOCIAL MEDIA

It is key that the public, media and government can put a face to your very important story.

Take photos and short videos (include your family if possible) and share them on social media. Hold up a sign with the hashtags:

#DnataWorkers #NoWorkerLeftBehind

STEP 2: CALL YOUR LOCAL MP

With Parliament sitting next week it is vital that your local Federal MP hears your story, and the impact that the decision to deny JobKeeper has on you. Importantly, they also need to be asked what this government's national plan is to ensure aviation gets up and running.

Next Steps

From Friday and into next we will be holding a series of public events that coincide with Federal and some State Parliaments sitting. We will be working with you all across Australia to make sure they have the maximum impact. Watch this space!

Media

There has been considerable media interest and we are working to ensure a coordinated, strong and effective voice gets out. To ensure we are speaking with one strong voice, if you are contacted by a journalist, please let your organiser know before you speak to the media.

Let's create a huge wave of Dnata activity and attention. When all 5000 of you stand together it is hard to ignore. We need every single Dnata worker taking action together.

TOGETHER, WE ARE STRONGER.
