QANTAS UPDATE

KEEP UP THE FIGHT

We know it's been an incredibly tough time for you and your families, and we'll continue to be there every step of the way with any support you need. The fight is not over yet, and we know how much many of you love your jobs. We're pursuing every avenue we possibly can.

FEDERAL COURT CASE FILED

Today we're launching a Federal Court case over Qantas' appalling decision to go ahead with outsourcing ground-handling. The case will be led by waterfront case barrister Josh Bornstein, arguing that it breaches the Fair Work Act by sacking workers despite the need for the vital work you do.

The Federal Government has continued to stay silent on this issue and refused to hold Qantas to account, despite motions condemning the airline from both the NSW Parliament and the Senate. Together we continue to take a stand. We'll be in touch with updates as the court case continues, but in the meantime keep in touch with your branch on ways to support the campaign.

REDUNDANCY SURVEY

Ahead of discussions with Qantas management to the exact timing and details of the how their proposed redundancies will work, we need to hear from you.

It is vital we hear from all members as it will help shape the discussions and next steps, with not only Qantas, but also with the incoming contractors.

In the meantime let's continue to expose this unfair decision for what it is.
