

QANTAS CANCELS BARGAINING MEETING

48 hours before your member-led team was due to meet with Qantas to discuss the agreement that expired in 2020, Qantas cancelled the meeting.

This is typical of Qantas, which has shown it has no respect for workers. Your team will not stand for Qantas' corporate nonsense and will take your frustrations directly to the bargaining table. We commit to getting a new agreement in place as quickly as possible, and will do everything in our power to do so.

WHAT WE'RE FIGHTING FOR

A FAIR PAY AND SUPER OFFER

- Pay rise to be linked to inflation so our pay doesn't go backwards
- A minimum of 4.6% increase

SHORT EXPIRY ON OUR AGREEMENT

So that we can keep up with cost of living, and bargain for better as aviation recovers.

GOING FORWARDS IN RATES AND CONDITIONS

None of our terms and conditions must go backwards.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

- We will update as soon as we have a date secured for the bargaining meeting
- Let your managers, and supervisors know how you feel about Qantas cancelling your meeting.

NOW IS THE TIME TO JOIN

Bargaining is the first step towards rebuilding aviation, and if we all stand together, we can achieve huge improvements to job security, pay and conditions as aviation recovers. We need everyone in the union to win the best outcome.
