

UNIONS WIN MINIMUM WAGE INCREASE OF 4.6%.

Unions have pushed hard to give the lowest paid workers a real pay increase. For local drivers this means a total increase of 5.35%.

Jim Pearson Transport is a profitable company and you've worked hard to get them through the pandemic. You're now busier than ever and you shouldn't be reliant on the Award for your pay increases – that should be the safety net.

YOUR PAY INCREASE

4.6% (minimum wage increase) + an extra 0.75%

Total of 5.35% increase

That's why we're uniting to fight for Same Job Same Pay.

OUR FIGHT FOR SAME JOB SAME PAY

Workers in transport companies with industry-leading rates and conditions get:

- ▶ Rates up to 40% higher than the Award
- ▶ 15% superannuation

- ▶ Site rates to preventing undercutting and protect job security
- ▶ A collective voice at work to improve safety and conditions

This was not handed to them. They collectively achieved this by sticking together and joining the TWU. It's time you have a strong collective voice where the value of your work is respected and recognised.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- ▶ Check your pay slips to make sure you've received your increases.
- ▶ Talk to your delegate or official about how we start working together to fix the issues in your yard and your industry.
- ▶ We need everyone in the union to win the best outcome. Join today.

TOGETHER, WE ARE STRONGER.
