

QANTAS UPDATE

SEPTEMBER 2023

HIGH COURT RESULT NEXT WEEK

The result on Qantas' appalling outsourcing of 1700 ground handlers will be handed down in the High Court next week, Wednesday 13 September.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

The judgment will be at 10am next Wednesday. We'll hold a press conference following the decision and let members know as soon as we find out the result.

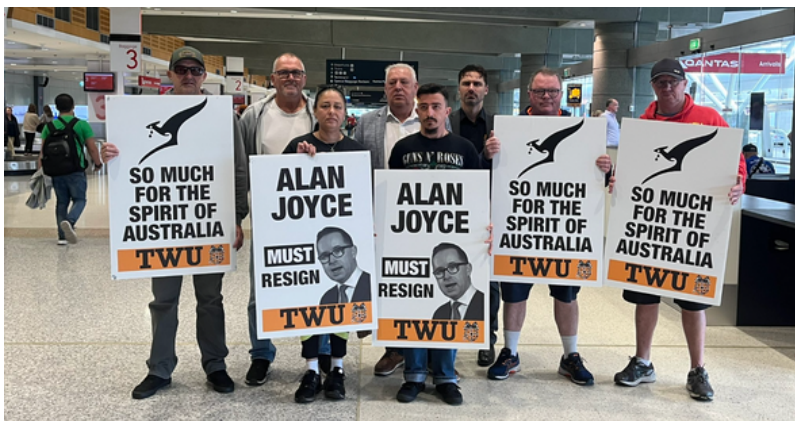

We'll also hold a webinar with the legal team following the judgment—we'll send further details on that soon.

WATCH PRESS CONFERENCE ON INSTAGRAM NEXT WEDNESDAY

ALAN JOYCE IS GONE

Regardless of the result, congratulations to TWU members who have relentlessly called out the appalling behaviour of Alan Joyce as leader of Qantas.

The years of holding him to account has finally paid off - with enormous public pressure on his management decisions, including illegal outsourcing and attacks to workers, Joyce has been forced to bring forward his retirement.

WATCH: THE TWU AND MEMBERS DON DIXON AND ANNE GUIRGUIS IN THE MEDIA

