

FIRST MEETING WITH DNATA

Your member-led TWU team met with Dnata management recently to begin bargaining for your new agreement. This meeting focused on dnata's business updates and formalities, with a further meeting to be held in early April. You've made it clear you're willing to fight for:

- ▶ Improved job security - direct employment (instead of labour hire)
- ▶ More hours for part timers
- ▶ Call in improvements
- ▶ Improved parental leave

BARGAINING SURVEYS COMPLETED

Thanks to everyone around the country for completing surveys on what you think should be priorities in bargaining. Your team will use these surveys to develop a log of claims on what we'll push for in this agreement.

MULTI-EMPLOYER BARGAINING CONTINUES

At the same time as Dnata-specific discussions have started, MEA meetings continue with Dnata and Menzies management and delegates from both companies.

All parties have committed to see if we can use the new laws and method of bargaining to create a historic first joint agreement to secure a better outcome for members. At the same time this is an opportunity to lift industry standards and stop the undercutting which is threatening your job security.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

- ▶ Ahead of the next meeting, which will be on 8 April, your delegates will be working hard to finalise your log of claims, based on what members have said are priorities for bargaining
