

CENTURION MUST STOP THE DELAYS

Last week we made it clear that the unnecessary delays with your bargain could not continue and that Centurion management needed to urgently:

- 1 Provide the outstanding information bargaining reps and TWU members have been waiting for
- 2 Come back to the bargaining table

FURTHER MEETING LOCKED IN

We have since heard from Centurion and thanks to pressure from members and delegates, a further meeting is locked in for today, 24 April.

NEXT STEPS

- ▶ We await the outstanding information so that TWU members can consider the offers being discussed and make informed contributions to the bargaining process.
- ▶ We will hold off having a workers' Zoom until after the bargaining meeting so we can report back on this information from the company and bargaining discussions.
- ▶ We hope that moving forward through this bargaining process we can have open discussions around Centurion's position so all workers have a real say on your pay and conditions. There is lots of work to do to settle an agreement that works for everyone.
