

IT'S TIME TO VOTE NO

Oceania has informed members it will be putting your Enterprise Agreement out to a vote.

Oceania is trying to rush through a sub-standard agreement. The company is not listening to your claims and instead has chosen to release a sub-standard draft agreement that the company will try to sell to you through "consultation meetings". You must remain united and tell Oceania that the proposed agreement is not acceptable and the company needs to return to the negotiating table.

We must stand together and vote NO to make Oceania listen.

UNMET CLAIMS

- ✗ Full time pathways
- ✗ Increase in part time hours
- ✗ Industry pay rates
- ✗ Higher duties clauses to reward skills
- ✗ Disputes and consultation clauses
- ✗ Industry classification structure
- ✗ Safe rostering
- ✗ Paid meal breaks

OCEANIA MUST COME BACK TO THE TABLE

Instead of trying to rush through an agreement that doesn't address most of your main claims, the company needs to come back to the table with a fair offer.

VOTING OPENS SOON

Vote opens: 24 April at 9:00am (QLD time)

Vote closes: 27 April at 5:00pm (QLD time)

It's time to stand together and VOTE NO.
