

It's Time to Bargain: Your claim is ready for endorsement

It's time to get back to the bargaining table. dnata must recognise your hard work by offering fair, safe and sustainable conditions at work.

TWU members have made it clear it is time to stand together for job security, a fair pay increase that addresses cost of living pressures faced by workers, and rostering that reflects a work/life balance.

It is time to fight for a big correction in wages, conditions and respect at work.

We must show dnata that we are united as a union to get a strong Agreement.
