

QGS MEMBERS HAVE SPOKEN

Hundreds of QGS workers have filled out the TWU Bargaining Survey, and it's clear that we need to fight for a better agreement.

of survey respondents believe that the current Agreement does not deliver standards that are fair for themselves and their family.

indicated that an increase to pay rates that are competitive and keep pace with cost-of-living increases was 'very important'.

BROAD SUPPORT FOR:

- More access to permanent full-time work
- Labour hire restrictions and ratios
- Increase in minimum weekly hours of engagement
- Minimum manning levels
- More favourable higher duty conditions
- A more comprehensive classification structure

NEXT STEPS

- ▶ Members will soon be asked to endorse a Log of Claims to be served on QGS and officially kick off the bargaining process. Keep an eye out for further communications.
- ▶ If you have any questions, please contact your TWU delegate or organiser.
