

REX SECURES BUYER BUT MUST COMMIT TO WORKERS' CONDITIONS

Click here to watch the full news story on ABC Breakfast

The bid by US aviation company Air T to buy Rex must include firm commitments to protect vital regional routes, decent jobs, and workers' pay and conditions.

Your union is calling on Air T to prioritise regional communities and uphold the pay conditions that workers have fought for.

WHAT WE'RE DOING

- ✓ We're calling for a meeting with Air T to pursue commitments around worker entitlements
- ✓ Continuing to push for a fair agreement for ground workers, calling on the EA to be completed and put out to vote with the workforce ASAP
- ✓ Ongoing discussions with the Federal Government to ensure any public funding comes with conditions guaranteeing routes, services, and decent jobs

NEXT STEPS

- We're seeking a meeting with Air T to get answers on the future of regional routes, the airline's fleet, seeking protections of head count and details on expansion plans.
- With bargaining ongoing for ground workers, Air T must ensure that bargaining will be completed and put out to a vote urgently.
- Push for long-term reform: The Federal Government must back a Safe & Secure Skies Commission to end the uncertainty facing regional aviation and protect essential routes for good.
