SAFE & SECURE SKIES

Are flights being used to bypass domestic cabin crew pay rates?

Jetstar is shamefully exploiting a legal loophole to avoid paying you union rates and conditions.

Workers from Denpasar, Bangkok, Phuket, and Singapore are being paid as little as $10 an hour to take on flight from one domestic port to another through international tag flights.

It's time to speak up.

Have you been involved or heard of incidents where domestic crew are being removed from flights and replaced with international crew?

Help track these incidents and report them by clicking here.

Speak to your TWU delegate for more information.
