

SWISSPORT WORKERS ARE BUILDING POWER

Swissport workers are standing up. From 16–20 February, the TWU hit Swissport sites nationwide, with workers demanding immediate action from Swissport and its airline clients to deliver:

- 1 Fair pay and conditions in line with industry standards
- 2 Secure, full-time hours
- 3 Safe systems of work

You've sent a clear message: enough is enough.

SAME WORK. SAME AIRLINES. LESS PAY.

Swissport workers earn significantly less than colleagues at dnata and Menzies, despite doing the same work for the same airlines. This race to the bottom hurts workers and undermines safety across the industry.

TWU HAS A PLAN.

TWU members are fighting to set sector-wide standards so Swissport can no longer undercut the market by paying workers the bare minimum - and in some cases, below the minimum. But this plan only works if Swissport workers stand together.
