TWU Carrying Australia

CENTURION UPDATE
JUNE 2026

CENTURION SAYS NO TO FAIR NEGOTIATING

Centurion has informed your member-led team that it has ruled out the option for TWU delegates to attend the upcoming negotiations in person.

Despite proposing to consolidate eight complex agreements into one national agreement, Centurion thinks it's "too expensive" to pay for delegates to represent members.

TWU delegates are your voice at the negotiating table and they have been elected by you to represent your interests. Face-to-face meetings are the best way to ensure your message gets through to Centurion.

All other companies in majors step up and bring delegates together, so why won't Centurion?

THEY WON'T GET AWAY WITH THESE CORPORATE TACTICS

We must keep up the pressure on Centurion to improve your pay and conditions and catch up to the rest of the industry. The strongest way to do that is by standing together as a collective voice and build your negotiating power.

NEXT STEPS

- Attend yard meetings and have your say: Your organisers and delegates will be out on-site to discuss your log of claims with you.
- Join the TWU. The more members we have, the more pressure there is on the company to make change. That starts with you and your mates becoming a member today.

2026 our roads, our skies, our future

This year, over 220 TWU Enterprise Agreements expire at the same time.

That's over 60,000 transport workers standing together to lift standards, end the race to the bottom and stop client attacks on job security.

This is our moment to win industry-wide change.

TWU members' survey → Member claim endorsement → Member-led negotiations → Member report-back meetings → Fight to win in-principle EA

JOIN THE TWU TODAY

@TWUAUS

When we unite, we win. When we fight, we win.

If you're not a member, scan the QR code or click here to join now.

TWU SA/NT Sam McIntosh P: 08 8346 4177 E: info@twusant.au W www.twusant.com.au

Authorised by Michael Kaine, National Secretary, Transport Workers' Union. Level 9, 447 Kent St, Sydney 2000 p(02) 8114 6500 twu@twu.com.au