

FEDEX WORKERS HAVE SPOKEN. FEDEX IS STILL REFUSING TO LISTEN.

SAME AGREEMENT GOING TO A THIRD VOTE

FedEx is ignoring workers again and pushing its rejected agreement—which is even worse—to a third vote.

SLASHED PAY

The agreement would deliver 0% increases for June, July and now August.

REFUSAL TO MEET

FedEx is still refusing to meet with your member-led committee to negotiate a deal that protects job security and hard-won conditions.

TWU LODGES ANOTHER COURT CASE AGAINST FEDEX

Today, the TWU lodged its second legal case against FedEx, after workers reported the company targeting people for exercising your legal workplace rights.

That is adverse action—and it is illegal.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

Workers in Australia have the legal right to take protected industrial action, bargain and stand together without fear of punishment.

This case is about forcing FedEx to obey Australian law and respect workers' rights.

It follows the TWU last week lodging a separate Good Faith Bargaining dispute in the Fair Work Commission.

STAND TOGETHER AND HOLD THE LINE

FedEx is trying to wear workers down.

But workers have already shown their strength by standing together for job security, fair pay and protected conditions.

Every worker who remains outside the union makes it easier for FedEx to keep ignoring the workforce.

WE NEED YOU TO:

- Talk to your workmates about what's at stake (pay and job security at the top of that list)
- Ask non-members to join the union.
- Vote NO to any future agreements.
