

CONGRATS ON HUGE SECOND FEDEX STRIKES

A huge congrats to TWU members who took 24-hour strike action yesterday. Strike action is never easy, especially when FedEx took the aggressive move of locking workers out for a further 24 hours. But the company's response shows you are putting on huge pressure. We're calling on FedEx to get back to negotiations and settling a fair agreement.

FedEx workers take on robots over Aussie jobs

Thousands of Aussie workers have walked off the job in a growing battle over the future of their jobs, with a protest outside the MCG for the NFL clash turning up the heat.

MICHAEL KAINE TWU NATIONAL SECRETARY

"Our community should be in charge, not foreign billionaires."

"We want assurances that we're still going to have the same job, or even if it's a different job in the future, we're going to have the same hours and the same pay."

SAM LYNCH VICTAS DIRECTOR OF ORGANISING

"You can Americanise the MCG for a day with the NFL. But we're not going to let FedEx Americanise our workforce."
