

TWU NOTIFIES ACTION – 24-HOUR STOPPAGE THURS 10 SEPT

Congratulations to all FedEx workers who voted NO to FedEx's dodgy offer today.

Over the last week we've seen thousands of workers push back on US FedEx's desperate attempts to force through an agreement attacking secure Australian jobs and conditions.

While we wait for the vote outcome, we're keeping the pressure on FedEx.

Your member-led committee has endorsed moving towards a 24-hour stoppage on Thurs 10 Sept to keep this pressure on.

FedEx's senior US management will be in Australia to promote an NFL match during this time.

We will give FedEx every opportunity to deliver real improvements on job security and pay before action takes place, and we're calling on the company to return urgently to negotiations. But we also must be prepared to take action on Thursday if required.

WE'RE FIGHTING AGAINST:

1 Below-inflation pay offer

2 No protections against AI & automation

3 No job security protections

24-HOUR STOPPAGE TIME - LOCAL TIME

START: 00:01 (morning) Thurs 10 September

FINISH: 24:00 midnight (evening) Thurs 10 September
