

K&S MUST COME BACK TO THE TABLE

Congrats to all K&S ChemTrans workers who took part in the huge action as part of the TWU's largest ever road transport strikes.

K&S wants to keep you fractured. We win by staying united.

Chemtrans members nationally agreed to stick together and stay strong. We will be supporting our members to continue pushing to get the best outcome.

WE'RE FIGHTING FOR:

1 A fair pay offer

That closes the gap between you and transport workers at other companies who do the same job as you, as well as fair super

2 Consolidated agreements

When we fight together, we are stronger. Chemtrans members across the country endorsed consolidation. As a union, we have done this in our major transport agreements across the country – we can do it again here.

3 Job security, Future of work and an expiry of the agreement of 2029 to stay in the industry fight with other transport workers

K&S MUST RETURN TO NEGOTIATIONS WITH A FAIR AGREEMENT FOR MEMBERS

- We have demanded K&S back to the table to bargain with Chemtrans members.
- It's time for a fair deal on pay and conditions for all ChemTrans members who carry out critical work for this company
- Our Chemtrans members in Western Australia, who are currently bargaining with K&S, have endorsed and are about to join the national fight for consolidation.
