

UPDATE - QANTAS COMPENSATION

PENALTY MONEY HAS NOW BEEN DISTRIBUTED

Following a recent hearing in front of Justice Lee, the remainder of the $40 million penalty money has now been distributed to workers based on your years of service.

Congrats to TWU members for your long battle that will now see workers' years of service acknowledged—for some of you this is decades.

With Qantas announcing over $2 billion in profits recently, your efforts have ensured that the airline is still being held to account for its illegal and reprehensible actions. We'll continue to remind the Australian community of Qantas' actions as we work to lift standards across the aviation industry.

Compensation process - ongoing

- While the $40 million in penalty money has been distributed, the progress of $120 million compensation money is still ongoing
- This process will decide your economic and non-economic loss based on principles in Justice Lee's judgment
- Most people have provided all the info required; please double check and keep a look out for any additional requests or communication from the administrator.
- We are pushing the administrators as hard as we can for the process to be expedited as much as possible, while still ensuring it retains its integrity, and workers receive the full compensation they are entitled to under the judgment.
