ACFS UPDATE
OCTOBER 2026

ACFS ADMINISTRATION UPDATE

What's happening?

The TWU is doing everything it can to:

- protect jobs and worker entitlements
- seek clarity about the about the long-term future of ACFS

More information to come in December

- The TWU expects more information to be provided in December, when creditors will meet again to consider the future of the company and potential plans for sale
- The TWU will urge Administrators to focus on keeping the company sustainable, protecting jobs, while making sure workers' entitlements are protected and paid

Final stages of EA

- We have been working with Receivers to finalise your EA and this process is now almost complete
- With the drafting finalised, the Receivers will now apply to the Federal Court to get approval to put the agreement to a ballot of workers—we'll keep members updated

NEXT STEPS

Creditors' meeting 5 Nov

- The next creditors meeting is 5 Nov at 11am AEDT for an update from Administrators. Workers will need to resubmit a new proxy form to have the TWU represent them.
- All workers should have completed a proof of debt form to claim entitlements. If you have not completed this form or are unsure please contact legal@twu.com.au.
