

QUBE TRIES TO FORCE THROUGH AGREEMENT AGAIN

Workers already rejected Qube's agreement twice. Now, Qube is putting that same agreement again. The only change is an insulting 5 cents per hour increase to reach stackers.

This terrible agreement continues to:

Pay VIC workers -$4/hour less than NSW workers (leaving you -$8,000/year worse off)

Increases are not backed CPI and are not likely to keep up with inflation next year

No loyalty to permanent workers (outside hire and labour hire can be prioritised for overtime/shifts)

No extra leave entitlements, no voice at work, no extra super

With cost of living and interest rates rising Qube workers deserve better.

Qube needs to stop putting the agreement out to vote and return to the negotiating table with your delegates to deliver an agreement delivers fair pay and secure jobs.
