

UPDATE - QANTAS COMPENSATION

TWU Carrying Australia

FIRST ROUND OF COMPENSATION PAYMENTS SCHEDULED BEFORE CHRISTMAS

➡ DEED SENT FOR SIGNING

Congrats to all workers—after a gruelling six year battle, with Qantas fighting workers all the way to the High Court, the first round of compensation payments will soon be made after you have signed and returned your deed.

Against all odds, winning this case has showed the public just how appallingly Qantas treated its workforce, and incoming payments mean workers will now be able to fully move on from the company's illegal treatment.

DEED MUST NOW BE SIGNED

You must sign a deed of release by 1 Dec to receive your final payment by 15 Dec.

YOU MUST RETURN YOUR SIGNED DEED OF RELEASE BY 1 DEC

How do I sign the deed?

Depending on where you live you can sign the deed by either:

Electronic signature

If you live in:

- Victoria
- NSW
- QLD
- Internationally

Physical signature

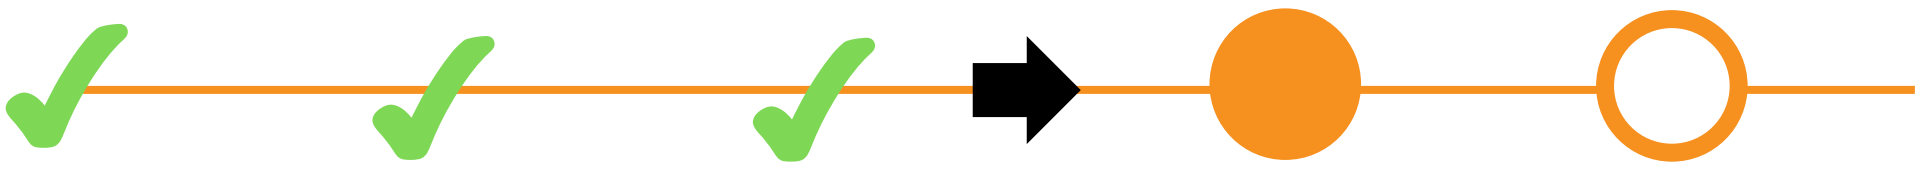

If you live in:

- WA
- SA
- Tasmania
- ACT
- NT

You'll be sent instructions from Maurice Blackburn on how to complete your signature and get it witnessed.

First round of payments scheduled for 15 December

The first round of final payments will be made by the administrator on 15 December 2026.
