PREPARE TO TAKE ACTION

After a huge vote on your Protected Action Ballot, the TWU and ASU have now notified for 24-hour action this Friday. Here's what you need to know.

WHAT THE 24-HOUR ACTION WILL LOOK LIKE

The action will commence at 12am (local time in your state) on Friday and go for 24-hours, and involve:

ANNOUNCEMENT BAN

A twenty-four hour ban on making announcements, except relating to:

- safety
- security
- employee welfare

SALES-RELATED TRANSACTIONS

A twenty-four hour ban on processing sales-related transactions, including:

- excess baggage charges
- seat changes
- late fees
- other customer charges

where applicable fee is waived or recorded as zero dollars

PRIORITY SECURITY LANES

A twenty-four hour ban on using priority security screening lanes

LOUNGE CHECK-INS

A twenty-four hour ban on performing lounge check-in duties.

WE'RE FIGHTING FOR

- Fair pay that reflects the cost of living pressures
- Protection of existing conditions, including Days-in-Lieu
- Responsible shift lengths and work load protections
- Fair rosters without last-minute shift changes

YOU'RE NOT ALONE

With Virgin cabin crew voting in their Protected Action Ballot, and Virgin Ground pledging to do the same, this fight is happening across the company—and across aviation.
